What We Offer

The Wayne County Probate Bar Association offers:

- Annual Attorney Training Program by the Wayne County Probate Court in partnership with the Wayne County Probate Bar Association;
- Annual Association Meeting;
- Educational luncheon seminars with guest speakers who address current probate issues;
- Newsletters with current events and up-to-date matters involving the Wayne County Probate Court;
- Lawyer Referral Service* and Discounted Professional Disability Insurance
- Various Wayne County Probate Bar Association Charity Events;
- Annual Golf Outing
- Annual Softball Competition.

Para-professionals, Paralegals, and Legal Assistants are welcome to become Associate Members. Associate membership affords the opportunity to keep abreast of changes in law and procedure within the probate court.

There is something for everyone.

* For a nominal fee, the Lawyer Referral Service is open to attorneys who are members of the Wayne County Probate Bar Association. This referral service will enable individuals with legal needs to have access to and be placed with attorneys who have specific knowledge of probate law.

 The Wayne County Probate Bar Association, through Paragon Underwriters, has negotiated a 10% discount with Berkshire Life for a professional disability insurance plan.

What We'd Like You To Do

Join our group of professionals and become involved with other attorneys and Judges who specialize in the practice of probate law. If you'd like additional information, please contact Melissa Nieman of the Wayne County Probate Bar Association at (734) 789-9994.
