

Person Requiring Treatment MCL 330.1401

Mentally Ill and...

A. can reasonably be expected in the near future to intentionally or unintentionally seriously physically injury himself or another and has engaged in acts or made threats substantially supportive of the expectation.

B. unable to attend to the basic physical needs (food, shelter, clothing) in order to avoid harm to self in the near future and has demonstrated that inability by failing to attend to those basic needs.

or

C. judgment is so impaired by that mental illness that he or she is unable to understand his or her need for treatment, and whose impaired judgment, on the basis of competent clinical opinion, presents a substantial risk of significant physical or mental harm to the individual in the near future or presents a substantial risk of physical harm to others in the near future.

D. An individual who has mental illness, whose understanding of the need for treatment is impaired to the point that he or she is unlikely to voluntarily participate in or adhere to treatment that has been determined necessary to prevent a relapse or harmful deterioration of his or her condition and whose noncompliance with treatment has been a factor in the individual's placement in a psychiatric hospital, prison, or jail at least 2 times within the last 48 months or whose noncompliance with treatment has been a factor in the individual's committing 1 or more acts, attempts, or threats of serious violent behavior within the last 48 months. An individual under this subdivision is only eligible to receive assisted outpatient treatment.

Mentally Ill - substantial disorder of thought or mood which significantly impairs judgment, behavior, capacity to recognize reality, or ability to cope with the ordinary demands of life.
