

Wayne County Probate Court
2018 Attorney Training
Certification Requirements

To obtain eligibility credit for the 2018 Attorney Training in the Probate Court, attorneys are required to satisfy all of the following requirements:

Attend the October 25, 2018 Afternoon Attorney Training session offered by the Probate Court.

If you did not attend any of the Probate Court Attorney Training Sessions from 1996 - 2017, you must also attend the October 25, 2018 Morning Attorney Training session.

Submit a completed “Attorney Profile Sheet” provided by the Court in the seminar materials.

Deadline for submission of Attorney Profile Sheets is November 22, 2018.

Submit a copy of the “face sheet” (i.e., the declaration page showing a minimum aggregate level of liability coverage of $250,000) from your malpractice insurance policy.

Deadline for submission of malpractice insurance information is November 22, 2018.

Attorneys who otherwise meet the certification requirements but do not submit malpractice insurance information will be eligible for Guardian ad Litem assignments only.

Attorney Profile sheets and Proof of Malpractice Insurance should be mailed, e-mailed, hand-delivered, or FAXed to:
